Bolivia is the perfect destination for lovers of adventure and nature travel as well as those looking for cultural contact through the hospitality and kindness of its native people. The Bolivian territory is filled with natural wonders and landscapes of vast contrasts. A trip to Bolivia must also include a visit to the historical legacies that are carefully preserved in the cities of Sucre and Potosi.

We encourage you to plan adding to your humanitarian activities a week to explore and enjoy this wonderful country. We can put you in touch with a reliable travel agency in La Paz who will make all the arrangements for you.

Create your own team with co-workers, family members, church group, of friends.

You can also individually join a scheduled group trip. Please contact us at Missions@global-legacy.org if you would like to be advised when such opportunity is available.
